

Everyone loves a man in a (linen) suit.

Description

A menâ??s suit is capable of many things. A man in a suit radiates a certain confidence that, letâ??s face it, gets business done. It should also go without saying that this particular topic, although concerning menswear, is relevant to women. Why? Well, because what woman doesnâ??t swoon over a man in a perfectly fitting suit?

Suits have the power to completely transform a man. The thing is, there are a lot of bad suits out there! Although trends change, some things will always remain classic. For a relaxed, easy going vibe, try sporting a linen suit.

A suit made of linen has all the features of a traditional suit, keeping your overall appearance refined and polished. There is just something about linen fabric though that gives off a air of effortless style.

Itâ??s a timeless look that is suits every age. There is also something innately European about a suit made of linen. They always look like they belong on the hot, humid streets of Florence, where style doesnâ??t take a break even on the most sweltering, sticky summer days.

I could try to explain to you the allure of linen but I believe Fashionising describes it perfectly:

â??So many men simply donâ??t understand linen, and itâ??s often those of us who have had the luck of a childhood in Europe that may ever truly appreciate it. But a linen suit can be perfect for those hot, humid summer days. Try wearing a cotton or wool suit once the mercury pushes past 30 Celsius / 85 Fahrenheit and youâ??ll see what I mean. Because of its nature, line makes a great summer suit and colours such as whites and creams and particularly suited.One final note on linen: donâ??t be scared of linenâ??s penchant for creasing, itâ??s all a part of the fabricâ??s charm.â?•

Youâ??ll look great, stay cool, and be stylish beyond words!

Styles change over the years, but linen is always a classic choice. The only thing left to consider is the cut of the suit. To be honest, I am hardly the expert on this subject, but I gained some very valuable insight after reading Fashionisingâ??s guide to menâ??s suit. Itâ??s a fun guide that is great for anyone who loves learning about fashion!

A linen suit is a versatile fashion that can be mixed and matched with different colors and fabrics for a stylish look. If you have an expertly cut suit, then get creative with your shirts, pocket squares, or ties.

And ladies- you can wear a linen suit or blazer for a chic look too! Add some fashionable accessories or pair it with a fun, patterned blouse. I love this look because itâ??s a far cry from typical pant suit made of synthetic materials.
