

Linen Ideas for Your Holiday Gifts

Description

It's the holiday season and, before you know it, the time for exchanging gifts will be here. I know you've probably got a lot on your to-do list right about now, so let me help with a few easy gift-wrapping ideas! With your presents looking this good, no one will ever know about your frenzied last-minute shopping....

Gift Tags:

Gift tags are super easy to make and are a great way to use up leftover linen scraps!

I just grabbed my pinking shears to cut the edges in decorative ways.

I then used fabric gun also works

hot glue it seep through.

I used a permanent marker to write the names of the gift's recipient. I'm sure anyone will be pleased you spent just a few extra minutes to make their gift tag! It is a small, but sweet gesture.

Gift Wrap:

Cover your plain, boring box. Use linen instead of paper to wrap your presents. Why not?! It looks great and makes your gift look extra special.

All you need a piece of fabric and the ends of the liner tie the everything together!

You can even decorate with your handmade gift tags! Try different colors of linen too. There are so many options that you can really get creative.

I hope you liked these simple holiday tips! It's the little things that really add some festive cheer this time of year!*

CATEGORY

1. TUTORIALS

Category

1. TUTORIALS

Date Created

December 10, 2011

Author

novembrino