

Winners of the Studio Competition Announced!

Description

Our competition over at the Studio has come to an end and two fantastic winners have been chosen. This is our second competition and we were so pleased to see so many more tremendous and interesting entries this time round.

Christine is our Grand Jury winner, we shall be knocking on her door to find out all about her passion on re-enactment. Gary became the Peoples Choice winner.' Congratulations to them both!

We would like to again congratulate all contestants for the time and effort they have put in to enter this competition. Really well well done.
