

PATTERN REVIEW: Abbey Wrap Cardigan in Kenya Midweight Linen

Description

Abbey Wrap Cardigan in FS Kenya Midweight Linen

I was looking for clothes that could fit me at 28 weeks of pregnancy and that would remain relevant even after the birth of the baby. I saw the ABBEY Wrap Cardigan pattern on the Fabric-store website and thought that was exactly what I needed!

The pattern is very easy to understand and has only a few details. Along with the pattern, I also received a booklet, with clear sewing steps, a fabric yardage guide, which is handy to know how much fabric you will need to use for your project. This pattern is suitable for beginners, you wonâ??t need anything apart from your fabric and sewing machine!

For sewing I used FS KENYA Midweight Linen, I have loved this rich brick shade for a long time. I would also like to sew a heavyweight linen long sleeve cardigan to wear in the fall.

I chose size 8, although I usually use size 6 for sewing patterns from the Fabric-store and this size was perfect for me.

When my friend was photographing me, a girl came up to us and asked where I bought this dress, so that you will not go unnoticed while walking in ABBEY Wrap Cardigan!

This cardigan turned out to be so comfortable, ideal for a hot summer day, it can be worn as a dress or as a tunic, with shorts and a tank finished off with a pair of sneakers.

ABBEY wrap cardigan will always be timeless, perfect with many things in your wardrobe and be sure to become one of your favorite items!
